Behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest.
—Genesis 28:15

When Jesus uttered His words of comfort in the first few verses of the fourteenth chapter of John's Gospel, concluding with, "And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know" (John 14:4), Thomas said unto Him, "Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?" (John 14:5). Jesus answered him with a statement which has in it the ring of eternity. It was sublimely simple and yet profoundly deep. Its surface meaning was clear to all, and yet the great theologians have never completely sounded its mighty depths. This is that statement, "I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6).

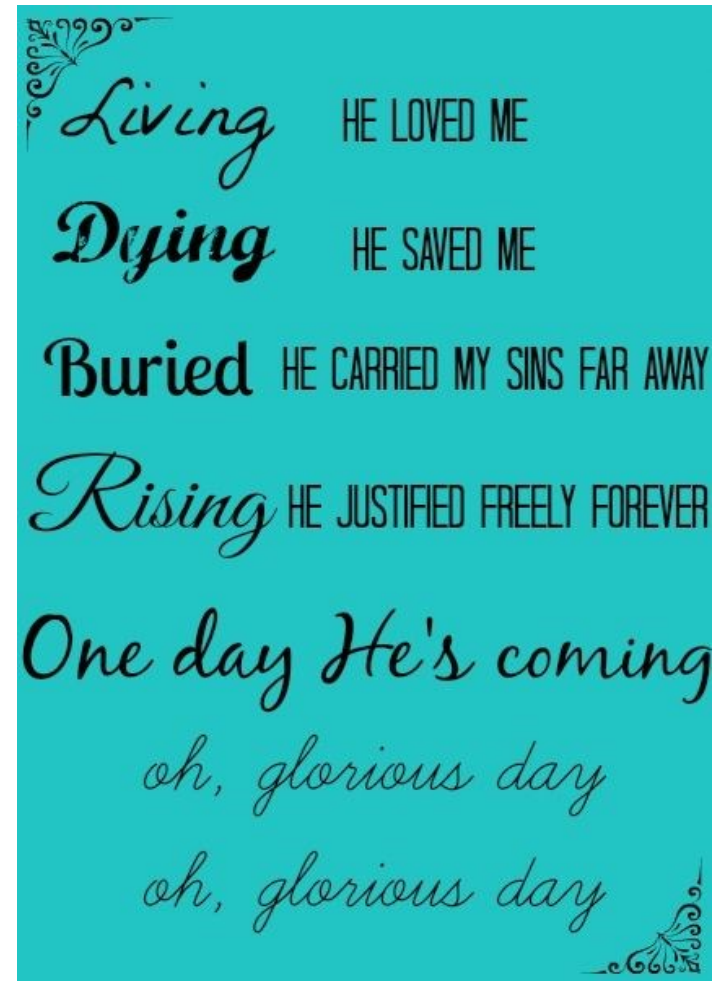

In one majestic sweep, these words silenced Thomas' questioning tongue and brought reassurance and peace to the hearts of the other disciples. Within the marvel of that authoritative sentence from the lips of the Son of God, there was enough comfort to assuage the sufferings of the tormented, enough wisdom to satisfy those who yearned for understanding, and enough power to set the great Christian movement in motion.

Dearest Cain's Chapel Pastor and Church Members:

I now fully understand why my sister, Wanda Mills, was so dedicated to and loved her church family so much! Your love and compassion shows in every way, such love for your fellow man and woman. Even the food and preparation of it was such an example of love and caring.

Thanks to each of you for your love and friendship to Wanda and Rennie.

Sincerely,
Brenda Lynn
Wanda's sister in Pensacola, Florida

The flowers on the altar last Sunday and today are in memory of Winford H. Collier in thanksgiving of his wonderful life and in honor of his 90th birthday on April 7 by Cindy, Teresa, and Susan.

The Children's Ministry would like to thank everyone who donated eggs filled with candy or gave a monetary gift for the Easter Egg Hunt last Saturday. The children learned about Christ's resurrection and had lots of fun finding eggs.

The prayer shawls and blankets have been a comfort to so many people within our church family and our extended church family. We give them to those who are sick, in the hospital, or going through chemotherapy treatment. These beautiful acts of love are a true blessing to those who receive them.
