Come and CELEBRATE family, food, friends, fellowship, and our bicentennial heritage on May 1 following the 10:30 service with an old-fashioned covered dish luncheon for the entire church featuring a presentation by well-known historian Annie Crenshaw on "Grandma's Kitchen." If you have a special dish which you would like to share that is a family favorite, please consider bringing that dish along with its recipe. These recipes will be included in the bicentennial section of our RAISIN' CAIN II cookbook. Recipe cards are available for your convenience on the display table in the narthex.
