MISSION STATEMENTS

As members of the Global Methodist Church, our mission is: to make disciples of Jesus Christ who worship passionately, love extravagantly, and witness boldly.

As members of Cain's Chapel, our ongoing mission is that we are: reaching the community, growing in faith, serving others with God's love and grace.

Please register your worship attendance and signup for Wednesday Night Supper in the pew pad located at the end of your row near the center aisle. Please do not bring food or drink into the Chapel or Worship Center. These areas are places of worship and should be revered as Holy. We thank you for your cooperation.

Sunshine Camp is an annual weekend camp designed specifically for persons with intellectual disabilities. We strive to include as many persons as possible who are mobile and over the age of 18. Most of our campers come from group homes in the state of Alabama, others are from individual homes in Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi. Our campers range in age from mid-twenties to early eighties—many coming since our beginning in 1980! We are like family and love seeing each other for a few days each year.

Each camp is operated by volunteers who have been trained to care for persons with intellectual disabilities.

The cost of Sunshine Camp is currently $150 per person and is supported by people like you. If you can help this year, please make your check out to Sunshine Camp and place it in the offering plate or bring it to the church office before April 26.
